DESIGN BOX - A pivotal architectural element in Arabic and Mediterranean traditional houses, the courtyard symbolises the heart of a home. Combining privacy with the aesthetics of a garden, at the Downtown Design Fair, Jwana Hamdan recreates a tranquil sanctuary for reflection and relaxation.

MAITHA, an Arabic name meaning "fertile garden," is an outdoor lounge chair boasting a bold aesthetic. The iroko wood structure features robust legs that provide stability and support to the chair, a comfortable seat cushion and a roll-shaped backrest. The external fabrics are removable and washable and made of 100% recyclable polypropylene yarns. Designed by Lorenza Bozzoli, the sofa is available with or without armrests.
